

Let's make it official

 Read time: 3 mins

Healthcare providers are vital in connecting patients to the benefits of ACC. But for that to happen, you need to be officially registered with us. Before you start, make sure you're also registered with your relevant professional body or authority and have an annual practising certificate. Here's how to register with us in four simple steps.

Fill out a registration form online
acc.co.nz/registration-form

Attach a copy of your practising certificate

Choose how you'd like to be paid
(time-based or per patient) if applicable

Click submit or send your application by email

How to register with us

Why register?

Once you're registered, we will:

- pay you promptly for appropriate services delivered to our clients if you're set up to work with us digitally
- support you to make sure our clients get the help they need to recover from injury
- provide support to help you understand our legislation, policies and procedures
- provide timely feedback if we have concerns about service delivery, documentation or invoicing
- work with you to address any concerns.

Who can register?

You can register with us if you're a treatment provider or registered health professional under the Accident Compensation Act 2001.

This includes: acupuncturists, audiologists, chiropractors, physical and mental injury counsellors, dentists, medical laboratory technologists, medical practitioners, nurses, nurse practitioners, occupational therapists, optometrists, osteopaths, podiatrists, physiotherapists, psychiatrists, psychologists, psychotherapists, radiologists, social workers, speech therapists.
